

Remembering Richard

A Special Scottish Country and International Dance

The Happy Soles Country Dancers invite friends and relatives of Richard Tully to a special dance in his honor. We will do easy Scottish ceilidh and set dances as well as dances from around the world for everyone!

Saturday, Nov. 1, 1:30 to 4:30 PM

At the Fanwood Presbyterian Church,
74 S. Martine Ave. (at LaGrande Ave.) Fanwood, NJ

Refreshments -- Please bring donations. Ready to serve veggies, fruit, cookies, etc. Homemade Scottish treats especially appreciated!

This event is a gathering of Richard's dance friends -- whether Scottish Country or International Folk dancers (and some who do both and others who do neither).. We will honor his memory and give thanks for his generous contribution to our dance communities. We believe he would be very pleased to see his many friends from various dance groups come together to celebrate his life in words and in dance. We invite teachers from these groups to lead dances and share special memories from their group. We will do beautiful dances from around the world which everyone can follow. The Scottish dances will be accessible and walked through as needed. International dancers may well be familiar with Mairi's Wedding, Shiftin' Bobbins, St. John River, John McAlipn, Posties Jig, Gay Gordons, and more.

After the dance --Some of us plan to go out to dinner at the Hung's Shanghai Chinese Restaurant, 362 Park Ave, Scotch Plains. Let us know if you wish to be included in our reservation.
