

The Delaware Valley Branch invites you to
A WEEKEND OF DANCING EVENTS: Oct 11th and 12th
THE HEART OF MIDLOTHIAN:
Dances and dancing from the time of Sir Walter Scott
(noted Scots author and the individual who helped to define Scottish culture and identity)

Led by Exuberant
Scottish Country

Master-Teacher and
Dance Historian,

Marjorie McLaughlin of San Diego

With events in Arden, Delaware and in Chestnut Hill in NW Philadelphia (see below for details)

In 2021, the RSCDS published "The Heart of Midlothian", featuring six Scottish country dances from the time of Sir Walter Scott with period music and historical background. Marjorie McLaughlin, an editor and reconstructor of the book, has taught SCD for many years. Her energetic and joyful approach to dancing, along with her depth of knowledge, has made her a sought-after instructor across the North America and internationally.

Lucky attendees will dance to traditional music played by our own DVB musicians.

Right > Dance floor accidents happened back then too.
